Today, fashion is really about sensuality-how a woman feels on the inside. In the '80s women used suits with exaggerated shoulders and waists to make a strong impression woman are now more comfortable with themselves and their bodies - they no longer feel the need to hide behind their clothes.

As long as you wear clothes you love, which suit your body and your personality. It won't matter if you're wearing a dress that was in vogue five years ago you'll still look amazing. Also somebody has to START new trends, and that somebody could be you.
