

We cannot fashion our Women after our desires, we must have them and love them as God has given them to us.

We cannot fashion our Women after our desires, we must have them and love them as God has given them to us.

